III. Statement of Claim

I, Dexter Robertson, age ⁶³59, African American man and a 20-year USAF Veteran who has lived in this home (alone) since January 2006 submits the following:

On or about February 1, 2018, Wednesday evening; I was sleeping in my home at 2996 Cumberland Woods Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43219.

At about 8:30 pm; my front door was busted open. My alarm system came on and notified me as well. No one entered my home.

On or about the afternoon (4 pm) on Wednesday, February 8, 2018; I returned from my DFAS employment and had a note from the Columbus Police Division on my front door. The note said something similar: "There was a false alarm notification. There were no visible signs of entry."

Later that evening at 8:30 p.m.; I went to bed. Shortly thereafter my front door was busted open again. No one entered my home again.

I communicated with my 2-way alarm system with Monitronics Alarm Company (now Brinks) and notified them to have a Columbus Police Division patrol vehicle be sent to my home.

Approximately 30 minutes later, a Columbus Police Officer (Caucasian male) knocked on my door. We communicated by me standing in the front of my home and he (no name given) was outside my home.

I informed the Columbus Police Officer that this “invasion of privacy” has occurred two weeks in a row and without any rationale.

The officer listened to me. His only reply to me was: “Well, it was kind of “Windy” tonight.”

Less than a week later, I had a Monitronics service technician come out to change out the alarm system as it was possibly giving off a “bad signal” to the city of Columbus. I pay them $25 a year for this alarm system as well. I have not had any further invasion of my home since then.

V. Relief:

To have a jury demand on my federal case versus the City of Columbus, Division of Police for my “right to privacy” in my home; “illegal entry” into my home twice within one week, and “racial profiling” me as an African American citizen without any “just cause” or rationale.

To have a fair decision made by a jury of my peers concerning the “irrational” actions done by the Columbus Police Division towards me.
